DIANE ROSETSKY, CIVIL ACTION

Plaintiff

vs. No: 07-3167

NATIONAL BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS OF THE UNITED STATES

OF AMERICA, INC.,

Defendant

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL OF DEFENDANT NATIONAL BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS

The National Board of Medical Examiners ("NBME"), by and through its counsel. TROIANI/KIVITZ, L.L.P., moves herein to compel plaintiff to produce her medical records and relevant tax returns for the reasons stated herein.

BACKGROUND

Plaintiff has made claims pursuant to the ADEA and PHRA, alleging that she was discriminated against because of her age, and was the victim of retaliation. NBME vigorously disputes those claims, but does not address the merits of plaintiff's claims here. Rather, NBME moves to compel the production of plaintiff's medical records and tax returns, all of which are relevant to plaintiff's claim for damages.

NBME served plaintiff with Interrogatories and a Request for the Production of Documents on September 11, 2007. NBME requested, among other things, plaintiff's tax returns for the past 10 years, including any businesses in which she had an interest. Request for Production No. 2 states:

2. Plaintiff's personal federal, state, and local income tax returns, and income tax returns for any business entity in which the plaintiff has held or holds an ownership interest, for the taxable years 1997 - 2007.

Plaintiff's response was:

This document request is objected to as being overbroad, burdensome and not directed to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. In particular, the income tax returns for any business entity in which the Plaintiff has held or holds an ownership interest is overbroad and irrelevant since that entity is not a party to this litigation. Second, the 10 year request for all tax returns is overly broad. Plaintiff is willing to supply and has supplied, tax returns for 3 years which covers the entire span of time she was working for Defendant, in addition to bringing Plaintiff's income current to 2006. The tax return for 2007 has not been drafted or filed.

Plaintiff then produced only the first page of her 2005 and 2006 federal income tax returns. (Exhibit "A"). NBME's counsel next wrote to counsel, requesting full copies of the tax returns as requested. Plaintiff's counsel left a voicemail for NBME's counsel, stating plaintiff would authorize the IRS to produce the returns for the prior five (5) years.

At plaintiff's October 24, 2007, deposition, however, plaintiff and her counsel departed before signing the necessary forms for the years 2002 through 2007 (when available), including Form 4506 and Form 8821. Because discovery ends on November 16, 2007, NBME needs these authorizations signed promptly, so that the IRS can provide copies (at least before trial).

Moreover, plaintiff testified that she was one of two shareholders, and the corporate secretary and/or treasurer of a family business, Checks 54th, Inc. On a prior resume and employment application, plaintiff represented that she was the office manager of that business from 1999 to present [sic] 2004. (Exhibit "B"). Thus, the tax returns of the business, insofar as plaintiff received income, dividends, or benefits, is also relevant to her income as well as her earning capacity, including at present.

All of the years sought are also relevant because plaintiff has had multiple jobs over the years: substitute teacher (over a period of years), University of Pennsylvania Medical School (four months in 2004 before she was terminated), Checks 54th, Inc. (4 to 5 years), and NBME (fourteen months). Her ability to generate -- or not generate -- income is relevant to the damages plaintiff now seeks.

The law is clear that the Court may compel the production of tax returns where they are relevant to the issues involved. See, e.g., Kine v. Forman, 209 A.2d 1, 4 (Pa. Super. 1965). See also, Paine Webber Inc. v. Devin, 658 A.2d 409 (Pa Super. 1995) (disclosure of corporate and personal returns ordered where party opposing such discovery failed to establish that such discovery would be oppressive, burdensome, or harassing).

There is no alternative source for the production of the corporate and personal tax returns, because plaintiff either doesn't have them or can't produce them in their entirety. Thus, NBME requests that plaintiff be ordered to sign the necessary authorizations promptly (Exhibit "C") (authorizations will be forwarded separately for corporation).

MEDICAL RECORDS

NBME's Interrogatory Nos. 20 and 21 requests:

- 20. Describe in detail the pain, suffering, humiliation you allege in the Complaint that you have experienced since the termination of your NBME employment.
- 21. Describe in detail all medical, psychological, or other treatment you have received as a result of the alleged pain, suffering, and humiliation described in response to Interrogatory 20 above, and identify all doctors, therapists, or others who have provided any treatment.

Plaintiff's responses were:

- 20. Plaintiff has suffered pain, suffering and humiliation and in addition to financial stress and it would be too long and too burdensome to go into all the details about how Plaintiff has suffered. In short however, Plaintiff has had stress, anxiety, panic attacks and significant depression as a consequence of her termination.
- 21. Plaintiff has not gone to the doctor for the foregoing pain, suffering and humiliation, depression and anxiety.

However, at plaintiff's October 24, 2007, deposition (transcript pending), for the first time, plaintiff testified that her prior conditions, such as irritable bowel syndrome, stomach aches, and depression were exacerbated by her allegations here, and she had seen Dr. Pam Fenstemacher because of her conditions. Plaintiff's counsel then agreed that plaintiff would sign a HIPAA release for Dr. Fenstemacher's medical records, but did not agree as to the production any other prior medical records.

First, plaintiff has now put the exacerbation of several medical conditions at issue. Thus, all prior records regarding those conditions is relevant for NBME to explore. Second, NBME is entitled to ascertain whether and when plaintiff was treated for those conditions (which were not identified in plaintiff's interrogatory answers). If so, NBME is entitled to ascertain specific dates of prior treatment as they relate to other events in plaintiff's life, for example, whether any of her alleged medical ailments or depression were triggered at the time of a prior termination in 2004 from the University of Pennsylvania (Exhibit "D"), or stem in whole or in part whether such conditions from other issues in plaintiff's life, such as her pending divorce (Exhibit "E").

The production of medical records is relevant where plaintiff, as here, has placed her mental health and medical condition at issue. Iwanejko v. Cohen & Grigsby, P.C., (W.D. Pa. 2005), 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 22563. See also, McCarthy v. SEPTA, 1993 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 14419 (E.D.Pa. 1993) (medical records relevant under F.R.C.P. 26 and relevant to whether employee's marital problems played a role in the development of her alleged emotion problems).

NBME seeks plaintiff to identify promptly all health care providers, including any who provided prior care for depression and/or stomach aches or irritable bowel, and seeks to compel plaintiff to sign the appropriate HIPAA authorizations allowing the release of such records to defendant. Because discovery ends shortly, NBME seeks plaintiff's cooperation in executing all authorizations promptly.

Accordingly, NBME requests the Court to compel plaintiff's prompt cooperation in executing all forms necessary to obtain her medical history and treatment, and her personal and business tax returns.

Respectfully submitted,

RE: Diane Rosetsky v. National Board of Medical Examiners

U.S. District Court for the Eastern of District of Pa Civil Action No: 07-3167

Dear Mr. Jennings:

Enclosed please find the HIPAA release and tax authorizations your client agreed to execute, but neglected to do so yesterday. Please have Ms. Rosetsky fill in her date of birth on the Authorization for Disclosure for Health Information form.

Plaintiff's testimony has also put her medical condition and treatment at issue. We are again requesting the names of all physician, psychologists or therapists who have ever treated her, including for depression, other emotional issues, and stomach issues.

As to the NBME proprietary information you downloaded from Mrs. Rosetsky's thumb drive, the data indicates that it was modified in February 2007 and July 2007 and possibly at other times. In addition, plaintiff forwarded attachments to her home e-mail, independent of her thumb drive, which remain in plaintiff's possession. Plaintiff is in breach of the confidentiality agreement she entered into in September 2005 and in violation of the November 8, 2006, explicit instructions from her supervisor. We demand a full accounting of all data plaintiff took and/or

Form 4506

(Rev. April 2006)

Department of the Treasury Internal Revenus Service

Request for Copy of Tax Return

Do not sign this form unless all applicable lines have been completed. Read the instructions on page 2.

► Request may be rejected if the form is incomplete, illegible, or any required line was blank at the time of signature.

OMB No. 1545-0429

Tip: You may be able to get your tax return or return information from other sources. If you had your tax return completed by a paid preparer, they should be able to provide you a copy of the return. The IRS can provide a Tax Return Transcript for many returns free of charge. The transcript provides most of the line entries from the tax return and usually contains the information that a third party (such as a mortgage company) requires. See Form 4506-T, Request for Transcript of Tax Return, or you can call 1-800-829-1040 to order a transcript.

CONFIDENTIAL

September 22, 2004

Diane Rosetsky 931 Thrush Lane Huntington Valley, PA 19006

Dear Diane

In following up on our conversation of September 22, 2004 this letter is to inform you that your position with Research Program Development is being terminated effective September 30, 2004

As we discussed, the quality of your interpersonal interactions and the ability to work cooperatively with a diverse constituency, did not meet the standards of this office.

Please return your keys, University I. D. card, and any other University property to me You should contact the Penn Benefits Center (1-888-736-6236) to discuss your benefits coverage

Sincerely,

Elizabéth Bien
